

April 3, 2008
Thursday of the Second Week of Easter

Readings of the day may be found on the following link:

<http://www.nccbuscc.org/nab>

Acts 5:27-33

Psalm 34:2 and 9, 17-18, 19-20

John 3:31-36

For the one whom God sent speaks the words of God. He does not ration his gift of the Spirit.

When my grandchildren were very young, I would tell ask them, "How much do I love you?" and they would answer, "To infinity." They had no idea how to quantify infinity but they knew it was 'a lot'—more that they could imagine. That memory came rushing back as I read the line, "He does not ration his gift of the Spirit." I wanted my grandchildren to know how much they are loved. I believe that God too wants us to know how much we are loved. We are instructed to go out ad preach the Good News to all the nations. The Good News is simply that God loves us, as we are, unto infinity---and beyond!

Life must be lived forward, but understood backward.

Kierkegaard

Look back on your life and notice the ways God has loved you.